Everything is designed.
Few things are designed well.

At All That Jazz all our products are handcrafted and made to order with a lot of love. There is a lot of thought put into each design created for little ones and adults alike. Whilst all our products are personalised, we are open to creating customised versions of our products for you!

Here's a little snippet on how you can choose whether you want to just personalise or customise the products you have liked.

Personalise vs Customise

Personalisation : You love the shapes and designs already available on our catalogue! We love them too. This is when you choose the personalisation option, where we incorporate details like the name, date, photographs etc. to make the product belong to you or to the one you are gifting it to.

Customisation : You love the product and a particular idea we have on our catalogue, but want something that is different in terms of look and feel. This is when you ask for customisation. And we are more than happy to help you through the process. While customising any product, we create a completely new design from scratch, basis the understanding of the occasion and the person you are gifting it to. The design will be unique, one of a kind and exclusively meant for the personality of the receiver.

Terms & Conditions

- As a policy, All That Jazz will put your order into production only post receipt of a 50% advance on the total bill amount. The advance payment is not refundable, as all the products we manufacture are made to order.
- The lead time for the delivery of products start with effect from the date of receipt of the 50% advance or the information required to begin production, whichever is later.
- The sizes mentioned in the product catalogue are approximate and may vary from product to product, especially in the case of customisation.
- The colours of the final product may slightly vary in comparison to the ones shown in the catalogue.
- Any changes to the design or any elements in the product, once the product has been put into production will be at an additional cost, depending on the stage of production.
- For various products, we ask for information which is more than what is actually utilised for production, as we need alternatives and do not want to withhold the production for non-availability of information. All the information sent from your end for products might not be accommodated in the final product. This holds true for the number of images sent, certain information to be used on frames etc.
- For any kind of customisation, there will be an additional cost which will be communicated when discussing the prices for each product. Do note that the customisation charges vary from product to product. Some customised products would also require a Minimum Order Quantity.
- The lead time for the customised products will be longer than the standard lead times mentioned in the catalogue.
- The products are to be duly collected from the All That Jazz office premises. We do not home deliver the products. Alternatively, we can courier the products through your choice of courier service with additional charges at actuals. Please note that we do not take any responsibility for damages that occur during transportation through courier services.
- None of the products delivered are gift wrapped unless mentioned in the description. We can provide gift wrapping which will be at an additional cost.
- Tax will be charged on all the products irrespective of the mode of payment. A Tax Invoice will be handed over while delivering the products.
- All products are handcrafted with love and hence may vary slightly.
